Family Green Card: Forms and USCIS Fees Overview

Bringing your family together is worth it. Here is a friendly overview of the forms and fees families often see.

Your family’s next chapter

Every year many families in Florida take the step toward a green card for a loved one. With organized paperwork, the process feels much more manageable, and we are glad to help you get there.

Forms families often see

I-130 Petition for Alien Relative; I-130A Supplemental Information for Spouse Beneficiary; I-485 Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status; I-864 Affidavit of Support; I-765 Application for Employment Authorization; I-131 Application for Travel Documents. USCIS publishes instructions for each form at uscis.gov.

USCIS fees at a glance

From the USCIS fee schedule (Form G-1055, edition 10/16/26): I-130 $625 online or $675 by mail; I-485 $1,390 online or $1,440 by mail for applicants 14 and older; I-864 $0. Fees change, so always confirm at uscis.gov/g-1055 before you file. You pay USCIS directly.

How we help

Our Family Green Card Form Package is $995. You give us your answers in writing, and we type your forms neatly and copy and collate your packet in the order you choose. You review, sign and file.

There’s hope in what you’re trying to do, and we’d love to help.

Start your immigration intake: https://form.jotform.com/262958583860069
Text or call (772) 742-4639 · www.notarynearmenow.com

Official sources

- USCIS Fee Schedule (G-1055): https://www.uscis.gov/g-1055
- USCIS Form I-130: https://www.uscis.gov/i-130
- USCIS Form I-485: https://www.uscis.gov/i-485

Jonathan Rexford is a Florida notary public and nonlawyer document preparer, not an attorney, and cannot give legal advice. This report is general information only.