What a Nonlawyer Document Preparer Can Do for You

Good news: you do not always have to pay high legal fees to get your paperwork done right.

Help that fits your budget

Many Floridians handle their own uncontested divorce, simple deed or estate paperwork. A document preparer helps you get those papers neatly completed, so you can move forward with confidence.

How it works

You decide what you need and give us your information in writing. For Florida Supreme Court approved family law forms, we can ask you simple factual questions and tell you how to file. For other documents, we type your information exactly as you give it.

What we offer

Divorce forms, estate plan paperwork, deeds, small estate paperwork, immigration forms, bills of sale, apostille requests, and a mobile notary who comes to you in Indian River County.

Flat, honest pricing

Every service has a posted flat fee and a 50% deposit to start, so there are no surprises.

There’s hope in what you’re trying to do, and we’d love to help.

Start your document intake: https://form.jotform.com/252536813795063
Text or call (772) 742-4639 · www.notarynearmenow.com

Official sources

- Rules Regulating The Florida Bar, Chapter 10: https://www.floridabar.org/rules/rrtfb/
- Florida Courts: Self-Help: https://www.flcourts.gov/Resources-Services/Office-of-Family-Courts/Self-Help-Information

Jonathan Rexford is a Florida notary public and nonlawyer document preparer, not an attorney, and cannot give legal advice. This report is general information only.